THE PATH

Michael Puett & Christine Gross-Loh

Trade paperback

In the first book of its kind, The Path draws on the work of six of the great – but largely unknown – Chinese philosophers to offer a fresh and revolutionary guide to human flourishing. By examining the teachings of Chinese thinkers, and explaining what they reveal about our daily lives, The Path challenges some of our deepest held assumptions. It shows that the way to live well is not to follow a grand plan, but rather to follow a path.
