THE FOX

Frederick Forsyth

Trade paperback

Most weapons do what you tell them. Most weapons you can control.

But what if the most dangerous weapon in the world isn't a smart missile or a stealth submarine or even an AI computer programme? What if it's a 17-year-old boy with a blisteringly brilliant mind, who can run rings around the most sophisticated security services across the globe, who can manipulate that weaponry and turn it against the superpowers themselves? How valuable would he be? And what wouldn't you do to get hold of him?

LOVE IS BLIND

William Boyd

Trade paperback

Love is Blind is William Boyd's sweeping, heart-stopping new novel – set at the end of the 19th century, it follows the fortunes of Brodie Moncur, a young Scottish musician, about to embark on the story of his life.

A fateful encounter with a famous pianist in Paris irrevocably changes his future – and sparks an obsessive love affair with a beautiful Russian soprano, Lika Blum.

It's a tale of dizzying passion and brutal revenge; of artistic endeavour and the illusions it creates; of all the possibilities that life can offer, and how cruelly they can be snatched away.

AMBUSH*James Patterson

Trade paperback

An anonymous tip about a crime in Upper Manhattan proves to be a setup. An officer is taken down – and, despite the attackers' efforts, it's not Michael Bennett.

A series of murders follows, each with a distinct signature, alerting Bennett to the presence of a professional killer with a flair for disguise.

Michael Bennett can't tell what's driving the assassin. But he can tell it's personal, and that it's part of something huge. Through twist after twist, he fights to understand exactly how he fits into the killer's plan, before he becomes the ultimate victim.

TOO MANY TSUNAMIS*Vincent Pienaar

Trade paperback

Bert hasn't succeeded at much in life. In fact, just about any stab at success has descended into pathetic failure. Even his feeble attempts at suicide have failed, leaving him alive and disappointed. His most recent attempt is accompanied by the most beautiful of suicide notes. A simple, single, smoothly alliterated line: Too Many Tsunamis. He loves it so much he thinks it might win him the literary fame that has eluded him for so long. He commits the three words to paper, and commits his body to the hereafter – but aborts the attempt in mid-flight. He doesn't want to die wondering if his mother will understand the suicide note.

Still living under her roof at the age of thirty-four, Bert is a huge source of irritation to his mother, who constantly verbalises the hope that he will find a job or a girlfriend.

In an attempt to explain his better-than-perfect suicide note, he begins to write a footnote to the suicide note. This document, he tells himself, is important. He'll perform the final act once the note is complete.

JUROR NO.3*James Patterson

Trade paperback

The murder of a woman from one of the town's oldest families has Rosedale's upper crust howling for blood, and the prosecutor is counting on Ruby Bozarth's inexperience to help him deliver a swift conviction.

As news breaks of a second murder, Ruby's ex-fiancé, Lee Greene, shows up on her doorstep – a Southern gentleman in need of a saviour.

As lurid, intertwining investigations unfold, no one in Rosedale can be trusted, especially the twelve men and women impaneled on the jury. They may be hiding the biggest secret of all.

DOWN TO THE WOODS*M.J. Arlidge

Trade paperback

DI Helen Grace must face down a new nightmare. The arrow-ridden victims hang from the New Forest's ancient oaks, like pieces of strange fruit. Why are helpless holidaymakers being targeted in peak camping season? And what do their murders signify? Is a psychopath stalking the forest? Is there an occult element to the killings? Could the murders even be an offering to the Forest itself? Helen must walk into the darkness to discover the truth behind her most challenging, most macabre case yet.
