A LADDER TO THE SKY*John Boyne

Trade paperback

If you look hard enough, you can find stories pretty much anywhere. They don't even have to be your own. Or so would-be writer Maurice Swift decides very early on in his career.

For Erich is lonely, and he has a story to tell. Whether or not he should do so is another matter entirely.

Stories will make him famous but they will also make him beg, borrow and steal. They may even make him do worse.

RESIN*Ane Riel

Trade paperback

Liv died when she was just six years old. At least, that's what the authorities think.

Her father knew he was the only one who could keep her safe in this world. So one evening he pushed their boat out to sea and watched it ruin on the rocks. Then he walked the long way into town to report his only child missing.

But behind the boxes and the baskets crowding her Dad's workshop, Liv was hiding. This way her Dad had said, she'd never have to go to school; this way, she'd never have to leave her parents. This way, Liv would be safe.
