THE HOUSE SWAP

Rebecca Fleet

Trade paperback

When Caroline and Francis receive an offer to house swap, they jump at the chance for a week away from home.

On arrival, they find a house that is stark and sinister in its emptiness. Then, gradually, Caroline begins to uncover some signs of life – signs of her life. The flowers in the bathroom or the music in the CD player might seem innocent to her husband but to her they are anything but. It seems the person they have swapped with is someone she used to know; someone she's desperate to leave in her past.

But that person is now in her home – and they want to make sure she'll never forget...

THE GIRL WHO SMILED BEADS

Clemantine Wamariya

Trade paperback

In 1994, Clemantine and her sister fled the Rwandan massacre and spent the next six years wandering through seven African countries, searching for safety – perpetually hungry, imprisoned and abused, enduring refugee camps, finding unexpected kindness, witnessing inhuman cruelty.

When Clemantine was twelve, they were granted asylum in the United States. This book is a powerful testament to her commitment to constructing a life on her own terms.

THE SEASON OF GLASSRahla Xenopoulos

Softcover

There exists a prophecy as old as history itself: in times of darkness a pair of twins will be born, a gift to humankind that will save us from ourselves.

Whether in ancient Ethiopia, where a warrior queen rises; aboard buccaneer Black Caesar's pirate ship sailing for Jamaica at the time of the Spanish Inquisition; or in a banker's opulent mansion in Austria on the eve of World War II, the twins, and their aides and enemies, must face a common destiny.

The Season of Glass is a modern Scheherazade's tale about these siblings' travels at pivotal moments. A shimmering novel, it is a kaleidoscope that works with light and shows us hope.

PATAGONIAMaya Fowler

Softcover

Tertius de Klerk: Afrikaner, hapless academic and potential dinosaur. When a student of his gets hurt after their drunken one-night stand, he must get away.

Like his great-grandfather Basjan before him, Tertius flees to Patagonia, a region where his forebearers made a new life after the Anglo-Boer War. For Tertius, travelling to South America is a desperate act, but also an opportunity to look up long-lost relations on the windswept plains of the continent's most southern tip.

But history repeats itself: Tertius's fiery wife Alta won't let him get away so easily and sets off after him – just like Tertius's great-grandmother Salome.

With much adventure and a good dose of humour, Maya Fowler's novel reaches as wide as the plains of Patagonia, where a form of Afrikaans is spoken to this day.
