SO MUCH LIFE LEFT OVER

Louis de Bernières

Trade paperback

Rosie and Daniel have moved to Ceylon with their little daughter to start a new life at the dawn of the 1920s, attempting to put the trauma of the First World War behind them, and to rekindle a marriage that gets colder every day.

Around them the world is changing, and when Daniel finds himself in Germany he witnesses events taking a dark and forbidding turn.

By turns humorous and tragic, So Much Life Left Over follows a cast of unique and captivating characters as they navigate the extraordinary interwar years both in England and abroad.

THE BREAK LINE

James Brabazon

Trade paperback

Officially, Max McLean doesn't exist. The British government denies all knowledge of the work he does on their behalf. But Max and his masters are losing faith in each other. And they give him one last chance to prove he's still their man.

Sent to a military research facility, Max finds the bravest man he ever knew locked up for his own protection. His friend lost his mind during an operation in West Africa. The reason? Absolute mortal terror. Max is determined to find out why.

Max lands in Sierra Leone without back-up, with his friend's last words ringing in his ears: 'They're coming, Max. They're coming...'

Unputdownable and packed with jaw-dropping plot twists, this is a thriller like no other.

THE THEORY OF FLIGHT

Sipiwe Ndlovu

Softcover

With the lightest of touches, and with an overlay of magical-realist beauty, The Theory of Flight sketches, through the lives of a few families and the fate of a single patch of ground, decades of national history.

By turns mysterious and magical, it dwells not on what was lost and what went wrong in a nation's history, but on the personal triumphs and why they matter.

Reminiscent of Chimamanda Adich'i's Half of a Yellow Sun and NoViolet Bulawayo's We Need New Names this is the brilliant first novel by an exciting new African voice.

GREEN AS THE SKY IS BLUE

Eben Venter

Softcover

For Simon, an expat writer living in Australia, life is about freedom and pleasure.

But unsettling memories well up every so often: of his youth on a farm in the Eastern Cape; of his father; and of a complex sexual awakening.

He attempts to find solace with the help of a therapist, but when he is forced to return to South Africa, Simon must prepare for a final confrontation with the country of his birth, and with those he has forsaken.
